

I was under the impression that this country was a free enterprize nation and not run by a few for the benefit of large corporations. I feel that refusing to have XM Satellite provide us with weather and traffic reports is an infringement of our first amendment rights.